SPEAKER PROFILE

1)Dr. Rajesh reddy currently working as Professor in the department of Anesthesiology, ASRAM Medical college, Eluru. He is a certified member in American Heart Association & Indian Resuscitation Council.

OBJECTIVE: To enhance their patient management and lifesaving skills.

OUTCOME: The "Compression only life support" course, held from 16/10/24 to 19/10/24, provided crucial training for 63 interns at St. Joseph Dental College. Dr. Rajesh reddy led the comprehensive sessions from 9:30 am to 4:30 pm each day, covering essential life-saving techniques and procedures. Under the coordination of Dr. Jacob prashanth, the program effectively equipped participants with practical skills and knowledge needed to respond to emergency situations. The concluding Question & Answer session offered valuable opportunities for interns to clarify their doubts and gain further insights into life support practices. Overall, the course significantly enhanced the interns' preparedness for handling medical emergencies, contributing to their professional development and ensuring a higher standard of patient care.
