The Anti-Ragging Squads should maintain a constant vigil and oversight. They should carry out frequent patrolling/rides in the campus and hostels during day, night and mid night to see that the Ragging of any kind does not take place and the newly joined students are safe and happy in the campus.

The Anti-Ragging Squads should remain mobile, alert and active at all times.

The Anti-Ragging Squads should also make surprise raids on hostels and other places vulnerable to incidents of, and having the potential of Ragging.

The Anti-Ragging Squads should conduct raids atleast once in the day time and twice in the night/midnight. The timings should not be known to the students.

The Anti-Ragging Squads should conduct on-the-spot enquiry into any incident of Ragging referred to them by the Management (or) Principal (or) any member of the faculty (or) any member of the staff (or) any student (or) any parent (or) any guardian (or) any employee of the college(or) any other person. The enquiry report should be submitted to the Anti-Ragging Committee for taking necessary action as per Regulations.

The Squads should plan their own time-table by dividing the rides between themselves.
