POLICY FOR FEEDBACK ON CURRICULUM

1. Introduction

Effective learning outcomes serve as the foundation for analyzing an institution's performance. To determine if the institution is providing high-quality education, the feedback mechanism is vital. As a result, the institution has implemented a policy allowing various stakeholders to evaluate academic achievement via feedback forms.

2. Purpose and Scope

- By promptly gathering, examining, and disseminating student feedback regarding education, teachers can audit and improve several elements of their students' learning experiences.
- Providing students and stakeholders with the opportunity to actively engage in the ongoing enhancement of study programs through timely feedback collection.

3. Stakeholders

The following stakeholders are included in the feedback mechanism:

- Students
- Alumni
- Teachers
- Professionals
- Employers

4. Feedback Mechanism

The feedback on curriculum is collected from various stakeholders in structured format once in a year. Filled feedback forms are analyzed and forwarded to the competent authority for further process and action.
