GUIDELINES FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF PROJECT-BASED LEARNING

Following discussions by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), it has been recommended that Project-Based Learning be systematically integrated into the course structure. The implementation is to be guided by the following framework:

IMPLEMENTATION PROCESS:

- Select and align projects with course outcomes.
- Ensure projects require students to investigate, research, analyse evidence, and propose solutions.
- Form diverse teams
- Assign roles within the groups
- Set clear timelines and checkpoints for progress evaluation.
- Conduct interim presentations or feedback sessions.
- Submit a written report with evidence-based justifications and conclusions.

TARGETED STUDENTS: Undergraduate & Postgraduate students

OBJECTIVES OF PROJECT-BASED LEARNING

- Enhance analytical and critical reasoning abilities
- Foster independent and self-managed learning
- Cultivate effective collaboration and team dynamics
- Strengthen academic communication and interpersonal skills
- Encourage innovative thinking and creative approaches
- Develop practical and strategic problem-solving capabilities

ASSESSMENT STRATEGY

- Evaluate the Project work done
- Asses the Presentation skills
