ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES OF WOMEN EMPOWERMENT CELL

- The Student Council (SC) facilitates effective communication between the student body and the administration.
- The Student Council offers opportunities for students to participate in program planning, leadership development, and volunteer work.
- It builds an atmosphere that is supportive of learning and personal growth
- It assists faculty, administration, and management in the development of the institution by offering suggestions, opinions, and feedback.
- It collaborates with student sports and cultural clubs in organizing various extracurricular activities.
- Regular sporting and cultural events are arranged by the student government in collaboration with student clubs, and these events culminate in yearly sports and cultural days. This strategy gives sufficient opportunity for interpersonal interaction.
