

ST. JOSEPH DENTAL COLLEGE
DUGGIRALA, ELURU
FIELD TIRP

DATE:06-08-2024

REPORT

As A Part Of Academic Curriculum, final year students visited the water purification plant as field visit. A water purification plant is a facility that removes contaminants and pollutants from raw water to produce safe and clean drinking water.

The field visit provided valuable hands-on experience, bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical applications. Students gained insights into water purification processes, technologies, and operational challenges enhancing their understanding of water treatment systems.